

If I Could

Charlotte Day Wilson

If I could, I'd cry once more
If I could, waterfall
Warm and clear
Crystal blue
I'd shower you
I'd shower you
If I could
If I could

Oh-oh
I'd bathe you
Wash you of the sins that plague you
Rid you of the burdens, and you'd be free once more
Oh-oh
I'd save you
Rid you of the curses that made you
Give you all the praises, then bring you back to shore
And you'd be free once more
Oh
You'd be free once more
Oh

If I could, I'd cry once more
If I could, waterfall
Warm and clear
Crystal blue
I'd shower you
I'd shower you
If I could
If I could

Oh-oh
I'd bathe you
Wash you of the sins that plague you
Rid you of the burdens and you'd be free once more
Oh-oh
I'd save you
Rid you of the curses that made you
Give you all the praises, then bring you back to shore
And you'd be free once more

If I could, I would carry your weight on my shoulders
If I could, I would carry it on my own

Oh-oh
I'd bathe you
Wash you of the sins that plague you
Rid you of the burdens and you'd be free once more
Oh-oh
I'd save you
Rid you of the curses that made you
Give you all the praises, then bring you back to shore
