

Kiss & Tell

Charlotte Day Wilson

Maybe, baby, kiss you and tell
Kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Baby, kiss you and tell
Kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Can't you tell?
This ain't love, no, this ain't love, no (Mmhmm)
But it's still something I can't get enough of Reading your lips, they tell me a story
Kissing you between the lines you told me

Let's keep this in the margins where it belongs
And no, we'll never disappear if no one sees us

Baby, kiss you and tell
Don't kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Baby, kiss you and tell
Kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Riding 'round your city, different circles
Keep it to yourself and it won't hurt you
Pillow talking, tell me all your secrets
No, we'll never disappear if no one sees us

'Cause only the light
From the moon
Can see what we have
Can see what we do

I might lead you on and leave no traces
'Cause our hearts have different homes in different places

Baby, kiss you and tell
Don't kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Baby, kiss you and tell
Kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Keep it on the low
You know I adore you
We don't have to blow our cover

Kiss me and come over

Baby, I adore you
We don't have to blow our cover

Baby, kiss you and tell
Don't kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell

Baby, kiss you and tell
Kiss and tell
Keep it, keep it, keep it to yourself
Kiss and tell
