

I taste your love dissolve under my tongue
You come and they just stay like no one does

This ain't a solution, it's only a fix, baby I know
Wake up tomorrow and we'll feel like shit, but baby, let's go
I've been locked up so long, these bars feel like
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

We only want our exes
When we get depressive
I'm getting self-destructive
It's getting pretty bad
We only want our exes
When our lives are messes
My friends say it's excessive
And I should put you back, this

Heavyweighted love
Lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love
Heavyweighted love
Lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love
We only want our exes
When we get depressive
So maybe I'll just save you for a day
When I'm really fucking sad

You write the script for the voices in my head
You're the only one I let take me to bed, yeah

This ain't a solution, it's only a fix, baby I know
Wake up tomorrow and we'll feel like shit, but baby, let's go
I've been locked up so long, these bars feel like
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

We only want our exes
When we get depressive

It's getting pretty bad
We only want our exes
When our lives are messes
My friends say it's excessive
And I should put you back, this

Heavyweighted love

Heavyweighted love
