

Complications

Charlotte Martin

It's too easy to walk away
All the money's gone
Silence says it anyway
That leaving you seems wrong

I'm not sorry for this complication
Not sorry for my motivations
Not sorry for this complication
I'm sticking with you

When I met you I was taken back
It was instant like a cold steel trap
We were set up for a full collapse
We were falling through

I'm not sorry for this complication
Not sorry for my motivations
Not sorry for this complication
I'm sticking with you

I'm not sorry for this complication
I won't back down from this situation
Not sorry for this complication
I'm sticking with you

Suddenly I realize
Suddenly you realize
We were always meant to be
Polaroids of just your eyes
Turning up the stereo
Listen till the morning glow

I'm not sorry for this complication
Not sorry for my motivations
Not sorry for this complication
I'm sticking with you
I'm not sorry for this complication
I won't back down from this situation
Not sorry for this complication
I'm sticking with you
I'm sticking with you
