

Snowflakes

Charlotte Martin

Snowflake
Requiem, requiem
Sounds like
Castles up in the air
Falling down
Falling down

Snowflake
Wild and so beautiful
Quake-proof
Just like I'm bullet-proof
Acting proud
Acting proud

And I lay awake
Watching the night fall around on me
And in every shade
I try to color myself
In ways just to be seen

Dances
Are in the eyes of a flaky
Girl filled with lies
Leaving town
Praying now

And I'm on my way
Taming the sky
But the snow still stings
Washing away
Every last tear in my heart
So I can just feel myself
Scream

Snowflake
Requiem, requiem
Hit the streets
But the streets have been blown away
Blown away
