

Better Off On My Own

Charlotte OC

Somebody told me I need freedom
My sister said, you love and leave em
Can someone tell me what's the reason
I keep returning to this feeling?
Here you are in front of me with tears in your eyes
I can't be who you wanna be when you're in my life

Maybe it's better, maybe I'm better off this way
With you I'm heading, heading for another mistake
I might be lonely, you may see my name light up your phone
But just ignore me, babe I'm better off on my own

I think I like getting excited
I'm not tryna justify it
I just get wrapped up in emotions
Chasing a high till I don't like it
Here you are in front of me with tears in your eyes
I can't be who I wanna be when you're in my life

Maybe it's better, maybe I'm better off this way
With you I'm heading, heading for another mistake
I might be lonely, you may see my name light up your phone
But just ignore me, babe I'm better off on my own

Some day you'll see it's for the best
Cause babe, my heart just needs a rest
Can't give you love there's nothing left

Somebody told me I need freedom
My sister said, you love and leave em

Maybe it's better, maybe I'm better off this way
With you I'm heading, heading for another mistake
I might be lonely, you may see my name light up your phone
But just ignore me, babe I'm better off on my own
Maybe it's better, maybe I'm better off this way
With you I'm heading, heading for another mistake
I might be lonely, you may see my name light up your phone
But just ignore me, babe I'm better off on my own
I'm better off on my own
I'm better off on my own
Oh, I'm better off on my own, on my own
