

Blackout

Charlotte OC

Oh, let the love begin
Oh, let the love begin again, oh

I stood at light
I was turning to dust
Cold in the night
I was barren of trust
Locked in my heart
I couldn't believe how dark

On a whim, on the wind
You were summoned to me
And the sails they were filled
With a torrent of dreams
A kiss on the lips
You wake me from my sleep

Cause I never wanted to be unfound
Suddenly I am the stranger in town
When all of the colors
You know that they all blackout

Can you wake, can you wake
Can you wake me up?
Can you take, can you take
Can you take me up?
I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait
Cause it's been long enough

Can you reach to me now?
Cause I've fallen in
And I'm caught in your wake
It's so hard to swim
Hold my hand, hold my hand
Hold my hand and let the love begin
Oh, let the love begin
Let the love begin
Let the love begin again

Wheels turn us round in the clocks of our lives
All we have is our own private terror to hide
Till the sun sings to someone
And glistens in the sky

Cause I never wanted to be unfound
Suddenly I am the stranger in town
When all of the colors
You know that they all blackout

Can you wake, can you wake
Can you wake me up?
Can you take, can you take
Can you take me up?
I can't wait

Can you reach to me now?
It's so hard to swim
Oh, let the love begin again
Blackout, blackout, blackout
