

Replica

Charlotte OC

I've not been to hell and back before
Not what I expected, not at all
To my surprise I met you at the door
Crucify me, [?] to fall

'Cause I saw heaven when you left me
Tears dropped all around me
And I could drown in your waterfall

I should call you when I'm ready
'Cause right now I'm still in pain
The problem is, I don't wanna leave you
We're too hard to save

Never had my guard this high before
I'm still trying to heal from my last fall

'Cause I saw heaven when you left me
Tears dropped all around me
And I could drown in your waterfall

I should call you when I'm ready
'Cause right now I'm still in pain
The problem is, I don't wanna leave you
We're too hard to save
Can't do a thing that I'm meant to
But I know you're feeling the same
The problem is, I don't wanna leave you
I want you to stay

Your mind is a replica of my mind
And it makes me scared 'cause
My mind is a replica of yours
My mind is a replica of your mind
And I'm scared to hurt
My mind is a replica of yours
