Headache

Charlotte Sometimes

I just can't breathe now
I don't believe now
It's too rough
I give up

I feel so stressed out
I feel so left out
From all the good
I know I should

Be everything I know I ought to be
Cross it off so I can't get to me
I'm halfway out of control
And if I saw me, I would leave me
Tantrum on the floor
Please hold me
Do you get my drift?

Well

I feel a low blow
I'll have to swallow
It hurts too much
I can't love

I'll be everything I know I ought to be
Cross it off so I can't get to me
I'm halfway out of control
If I saw me, I would leave me
Tantrum on the floor
Please hold me
Do you get my drift?

Well

I'm not enough for me now
I'm not enough for me

Headache, headache, headache
Yeah
Headache, headache, headache

I look for cover
Backwards and under you

Headache, headache, headache
Yeah
Headache, headache, headache

And if you would've said it
I'd be walking away
But everyday you talk to me
And blow me away

I'm just a little girl inside this world
Come and save me
I'll be your girl

I'm not enough for me

I'm not enough for me now

Headache, headache, headache
Yeah

I'm not enough for me now

Headache, headache, headache
Yeah
Yeah

I'm not enough for me now

Headache, headache, headache
Yeah
