

Hurt Me

Charly Bliss

Come on, let's get something wrong
Look into my face too long
Overthrow yourself to me

You need me like a parachute
Empty-handed, facing death
Overthrow yourself to me

You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby
You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby

Come on, let's get something wrong
Too close to an endless sun
Overthrow yourself to me

Remember all the plastic proof?
How I punished me for you?
Mirror over everything
Sometimes you feel nothing

The way your shirt hangs off your back
Easy, but you're nothing like that
Eyes like a funeral, mouth like a bruise
Veins like a hallway, voice like a wound

You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby
You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby

You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby
You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby

You're laughing and I'm waving back
Easy, but you're nothing like that
Eyes like a funeral, mouth like a bruise
Veins like a hallway, voice like a wound

You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby
You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna hurt me, baby
