

Nineteen

Charly Bliss

It's ten years since we met
Just nineteen when you saw me
Black t-shirt, half on fire
I was alive when you were mine

Staying up three hours past twelve
Yeah, you're always coming over
Fries from the diner downstairs
Fluorescent lights and you were mine

And it was awful
Hurt me so bad
We were monsters
Strangers in an empty night

Can I be honest?
Push it all down, but I want you
C'mon honey, break my heart
I could run forever, but I won't get far

Sidewalks in the summer heat
Don't make a big thing about it
Forever comes fast and heavy
And I lost the ring somewhere in Georgia

And it was awful
Screaming your name
Under water
C'mon baby, where's the fire?

Can I be honest?
How could I hide that I want you?
Tell me, how'd you get so far?
You're always breaking my heart

Tell me to let go
Wanna surrender
Stare at me so hard, I can't breathe
Face of an angel
You're just like heaven
I died a little
Just to be let in
Stare at me so hard, I can't breathe
Cold as a stranger
You're just like heaven
I died a little
Just to be let in
What were you thinking back when you met me
I died a little
Just to be let in
