Tragic

Charly Bliss

Speaking in a different language
Takes a second to explain it
Now that I see it
I wanna be where

I wouldn't be scared of strangers
I smell smoke, and it's unsafe, but
I wanna go there
I wanna be where you are

I know it in a vacuum, feel it in a packed room
Couldn't call you baby, but I know I gotta have you
Let's make it a habit, love so good it's tragic
Once you let me drive the car, you know I'm gonna crash it

In my head, imagine it
Hope I know what happens next
Now that I see it
I wanna be where you are

I know it in a vacuum, feel it in a packed room
Couldn't call you baby, but I know I gotta have you
Let's make it a habit, love so good it's tragic
Once you let me drive the car, you know I'm gonna crash it

I like playing the game
You could ruin my life
People think we're insane
I guess we're doing it right
Doing it right

Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right

I know it in a vacuum, feel it in a packed room
Couldn't call you baby, but I know I gotta have you
Let's make it a habit, love so good it's tragic
Once you let me drive the car, you know I'm gonna crash it

Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right
