

I Know A Good Thing When I Feel It

Charly McClain

I've said these words before, but now they're new
The meaning changed when I said them to you
So many times, I've known a lover's touch
That's why, this time, it means so much

I know a good thing when I feel it
I know it's right 'cause I've been wrong
I know a good thing when I feel it
And your arms feel just like home

I know a good thing when I feel it

I've made a lot of memories up 'til now
You're makin' me forget them all, somehow
After bein' loved this way
My heart has found a place to stay

I know a good thing when I feel it
I know it's right 'cause I've been wrong
I know a good thing when I feel it
And your arms feel just like home
I know a good thing when I feel it
I know it's right 'cause I've been wrong
I know a good thing when I feel it
And your arms feel just like home
