

Your Eyes

Charly McClain

There's a reason for us going
All the way to where we are
Can't no one live on forever
You can only go so far

So we lay in love together
Priceless moments of our lives
Time passes by so quickly
But that's a lovers will sacrifice

You know you're welcome
If you ever wanna stay here
Guess we could call it home
No reason you should leave
But I can see leaving
Your eyes are colored gone
They beg just looking wrong

Will you remember me tomorrow?
Remember what we did today, hey
I'm looking for a lifetime
You're eyes keep looking away

You're know you're welcome
If you ever wanna stay here
Guess we could call it home
No reason you should leave
But I can see leaving
Your eyes are colored gone
They beg just looking wrong
Your eyes are colored gone
They beg just looking wrong
