

Change Your Name

Chase Bryant

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa

I wanna open my eyes,
When the sun breaks through,
And see you there, beside me.

I wanna reach out at night,
And pull you close.
I wanna know your arms around me.

I wanna dream your dreams,
Wanna make em all come true.
Dance every dance that you want to.
Every breath I breathe will be for you.

Well I wanna change your name,
I wanna call you mine.
I wanna make you smile,
At least a million times.

I'll give you all my love,
Every night and day.
If you say I can,
I wanna change your name.

I wanna find a little church,
Where the wild flowers grow.
You can hear the wedding bells for miles.

Yeah, I wanna see the door swing open
And everybody turn
To see your daddy walk you down the aisle.

Yeah, I wanna dream your dreams
Wanna make em all come true.
Dance every dance that you want to.
Every breath I breathe will be for you.

Whoa, I wanna change your name,
I wanna call you mine.
I wanna make you smile,
At least a million times.

I'll give you all my love
Every night and day.
If you say I can,
I wanna change your name.

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa

I'll give you all my love,
Every night and day
If you say I can,
I wanna change your name.

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa

Yeah

Girl, I wanna see your daddy walk you down the aisle.
Wanna wake up to your pretty smile.
Whoa, whoa, whoa, yeah.
I wanna change your name.

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa.
