

It's You

Chase Bryant

Black Trans Am in a sunset sky
Detroit wheels on a heartland night
Springsteen coming through the speakers, we're reliving every line

That sophomore summer, girl, you were mine
Until we kissed that summer goodbye
Ten years come and gone, still only one thing on my mind

It's you
Yeah, it's always been you, it's true
Can't outrun, and no matter what I do
There's only one thing in this whole world I don't wanna lose
And girl, it's you
Oh, it's you

Hometown bar where we used to sneak in
There you are with a couple old friends
Good to hear you laugh, see you smile, how's your mama? Girl, how you been?
How you been, baby?

One more beer, house lights come on
And we're back in that car, nothing but the radio on, you
Tell me that you miss me, I tell you that I miss you too
You're damn right I do

'Cause girl, it's you
Yeah, it's always been you, it's true
Can't outrun, and no matter what I do
There's only one thing in this whole world I don't wanna lose
And girl, it's you
Oh, it's you, yeah

Yeah, it's you
Yeah, it's always been you, honey
It's you
Yeah, it's always been you, it's true

It's you
Yeah, it's always been you, it's true
Can't outrun, and no matter what I do
There's only one thing in this whole world I don't wanna lose
And girl, it's you
Oh, it's you, yeah
It's you, yeah, it's you
Oh yeah

In a black Trans Am in a sunset sky
It's you
