

Lonely

Chase Bryant

Hope you're sitting in your apartment
With tears in your eyes
And your phone ain't lighting up
From your friends on Friday night
Hope you're wondering what I'm doing
Who I've been seeing lately
Hope you're reaching for your keys
'Cause you miss me like crazy

Yeah, I know it ain't right
Probably ain't so nice

But I hope you get lonely
Lonely as I am tonight
Hope you get lonely
And you hate what it feels like
When you're breaking down
And you're all cried out
And you're torn up dying inside
I hope you get lonely
Lonely as I am tonight

Hope you hit every red light
On the way out of this town
Hope you see me in your rearview
And you wanna turn around
Hope you hear our favorite song
And the sky starts to rain
Hope you realize you were wrong
And you made a big mistake

Yeah, I know it ain't right
No, it probably ain't so nice

But I hope you get lonely
Lonely as I am tonight
Hope you get lonely
And you hate what it feels like
When you're breaking down
And you're all cried out
And you're torn up dying inside
I hope you get lonely
Lonely as I am tonight

When you're breaking down
And you're all cried out
And you're torn up dying inside
I hope you get lonely
Lonely as I am tonight
Girl, I hope that you're lonely tonight
Girl, I hope that you're lonely
Yeah, I hope that you're lonely tonight
