

Busy

Chase Coy

You're staying busy
You're staying busy

You're not who you say you are
And I know that better than anyone
You know when you act that way
It's hard to say that you've been honest

I don't want to know what you're doing
I don't want to know where you've been
'Cause once we start tearing the stitches
You'll lay me wide open again
But I can stay busy too

You're staying busy

I can stay busy too
I could stay busy like you
If you want me to
Of course I want you

I don't want to know what you're doing
I don't want to know where you've been
'Cause once we start tearing the stitches
You'll lay me wide open again
But I can stay busy too

Staying up pacing the room, can't
Sleep 'cause I'm thinking about you, but
Lately it's something to do
I can stay busy too

Staying up pacing the room, can't
Sleep 'cause I'm thinking about you, but
Lately it's something to do
I can stay busy too

I don't want to know what you're doing
I don't want to know where you've been
'Cause once we start tearing the stitches
You'll lay me wide open again
But I can stay busy too
