

Different This Time

Chase Coy

From the moment I met you I knew it was over
But it gets harder to say that as we get older

I see the future in your eyes
And it scares you every time
Because experience has taught you
That you should've learned the first time
And if anything it's taught you
That it won't be different this time

But we'll be different this time

I thought I told you I'm in it for the long run
And usually I make an escape plan, but lately I ain't got one

I see the future in your eyes
And it scares you every time
Because experience has taught you
That you should've learned the first time
And if anything it's taught you
That it won't be different this time

But we'll be different this time

I swear, no lie
Cross my heart and hope to die
You are mine

But experience has taught you
That you should've learned the first time
And if anything it's taught you
That it won't be different this time
But we'll be different this time

Because experience has taught you
That you should've learned the first time
And if anything it's taught you
That it won't be different this time

But we'll be different this time

But we'll be different this time
