

God Only Knows

Chase Coy

God only knows I can't be honest
God only knows I can't be more
God only knows I can not promise
God only knows I can't be yours

I could be a better person I suppose
If I could only find the strength to let you go
I've been know to run away
Yeah I've been known for chasing ghosts
But what I'd do without you
God only knows

God only knows you've been so patient
God only knows you've been so kind
God only knows that you've been waiting
God only knows that you've been mine

I could be a better person I suppose
If I could only find the strength to let you go
I've been know to run away
Yeah I've been known for chasing ghosts
But what I'd do without you
God only knows

I could be a better person I suppose
If I could only find the strength to let you go
I've been know to run away
Yeah I've been known for chasing ghosts
But what I'd do without you
God only knows
