

Hold Out

Chase Coy

I'm picking it up
I'm putting it down
I'm finally home now
To tell you the truth
You're hard to hold on to
But I will still hold out for you

'Cause we all have our own wars to walk through
So give it all up if you want to
It's never felt right here without you
But we all have our own wars to walk through

I'm picking it up
I'm taking a side
I've made up my mind
And you're scared to death
And I'm scared to say this
But I will still hold out for you

'Cause we all have our own wars to walk through
So give it all up if you want to
It's never felt right here without you
But we all have our own wars to walk through

'Cause we all have our own wars to walk through
So give it all up if you want to
It's never felt right here without you
But we all have our own wars to walk through

To tell you the truth
You're hard to hold on to
But I will still hold out for you
