

Where We Started

Chase Coy

The ground was just a canvas under foot
Each puddle was a sea from where we stood
We weren't afraid to leave or stay
We weren't afraid to make our own way

We didn't know these bones would ever rest
Our whole lives laid out in front of us
We weren't afraid to leave or stay
We weren't afraid to make our own way

Looking at the time we had, I have to wonder where it all went
Now I think it'd be just fine to finally end up where we started

The sun was just a new day taking flight
Each year was a giant in our eyes
We weren't afraid to leave or stay
We weren't afraid to make our own way

We didn't know these thrones would ever rust
We always thought that they'd remain with us
We weren't afraid to leave or stay
We weren't afraid to make our own way

Looking at the time we had, I have to wonder where it all went
Now I think it'd be just fine to finally end up where we started

If growing up is giving up the best parts
Then I just want to be the way I've been Lately I've been looking for a new start
To see the way I saw the world again

Looking at the time we had, I have to wonder where it all went
Now I think it'd be just fine to finally end up where we started
