

You Cried Wolf

Chase Coy

You cried wolf
You cried wolf

Absent
Thoughts fill the space where my love once was Sometimes I think you killed the whole thing just for fun

Silent
When I asked you why you did what you did to us
Sometimes I think I hate you just because

So burn it down
If you want to now
But don't stand there with a smile on your wicked face
You cried wolf but baby we know who's to blame

You cried wolf
You cried wolf

Lately
I can feel a heavy weight bearing down on us
Sometimes I think I love you just enough
But you're crazy
Sometimes I think that this is what you want
Sometimes I think I might just give you up

So burn it down
If you want to now
But don't stand there with a smile on your wicked face
You cried wolf but baby we know who's to blame

You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf

So burn it down
If you want to now
But don't stand there with a smile on your wicked face
You cried wolf but baby we know who's to blame

You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf
You cried wolf
