Dancing In The Rain

Chase Matthew

Some nights, we're fine
It's all sunshine and good times
But some red wine and some Comfort
Can turn that blue sky to thunder
Lightning fast without a warning, mm
So tell me tonight, before we start pouring

Are we gonna be crying in the storm or dancing in the rain?
Going up in smoke or sparking up a flame
Is it on the way to hell or heaven for a change?
Are we making love or making a mistake?
So tell me, what's it gonna be tonight?
Will we wind up in the sheets or a crazy fight?
Girl, I'm gonna want it either way
Whether we're crying in the storm or dancing in the rain

Yeah, I'm a little Jekyll and you're a little Hyde
When we're drinking Jack, yeah, we go a little wild
Are we staying on the train or running off the tracks?
Even if you're lying, baby, tell me where we're at

Are we crying in the storm or dancing in the rain?
Going up in smoke or sparking up a flame
Is it on the way to hell or heaven for a change?
Are we making love or making a mistake?
So tell me, what's it gonna be tonight?
Will we wind up in the sheets or a crazy fight?
Girl, I'm gonna want it either way
Whether we're crying in the storm or dancing in the rain

It can only go one of two ways

Are we gonna be crying in the storm or dancing in the rain?
Going up in smoke or sparking up a flame
Is it on the way to hell or heaven for a change?
Are we making love or making a mistake?
Baby, what's it gonna be tonight?
Will we wind up in the sheets or a crazy fight?
Girl, I'm gonna want it either way
Whether we're crying in the storm or dancing in the rain
