Why's he call you darlin'?
Why's he call you daily?
Why you tryna act like I'm just out here being crazy?
How's he know your mama?
Does he drive your Mercedes?
You can say whatever baby what you wanna call it
But why's he call you darlin'?
Yeah
And if he's just a friend then tell me why's he always calling?

You can play me like a fiddle girl see that's where you went wrong
There's been rumors round this town and now I know what's goin' on
You and him you say you're friends but we both know damn well
When I ain't around you're going out but you ain't by yourself

That boy in a Ridgeline and I drive a Chevy
He ain't got no straight pipes so baby can you tell me

Why's he call you darlin'?
Why's he call you daily?
Why you tryna act like I'm just out here being crazy?
How's he know your mama?
Does he drive your Mercedes?
You can say whatever baby what you wanna call it
But why's he call you darlin'?
And if he's just a friend then tell me why's he always calling?

You been beating around the bush so much you're knocking off the leaves
I got my own thoughts on what's going on when I ain't in Tennessee
What do ya say when the door closed
You can't see if it don't show
You say I'm overthinking just cause I wanna know

Why's he call you darlin'?
Why's he call you daily?
Why you tryna act like I'm just out here being crazy?
How's he know your mama?
Does he drive your Mercedes?
You can say whatever baby what you wanna call it
But why's he call you darlin'?
