

Heart Still Works

Chase McDaniel

Have you ever lost everything and couldn't feel anything at all?
Have you ever stopped flying 'cause you knew you couldn't take another fall?
I was so guarded, I never let you inside
But since you said goodbye

At least I know my heart still works
You broke it like it never would again
Now I don't even know what's worse
Falling apart like this or tryna pretend
That I ain't missing you, missing you
And it couldn't be ripped in two
But tonight, feeling this kinda hurt
At least I know my heart still works

All the words that I tried to say, none of them could change your mind
I kept tryna touch you, but I just couldn't reach you this time
There's no getting over you and that's the truth
I'm trying to do everything I know how to do, yeah

At least I know my heart still works
You broke it like it never would again
Now I don't even know what's worse
Falling apart like this or tryna pretend
That I ain't missing you, missing you
And it couldn't be ripped in two
But tonight, feeling this kinda hurt
At least I know my heart still works
At least I know my heart still works

I don't know what I coulda done, know what I shoulda done
But I didn't do it right
But it's good to feel like I'm still alive
At least I know my heart still works
At least I know my heart still works

At least I know my heart still works
You broke it like it never would again
Now I don't even know what's worse
Falling apart like this or tryna pretend
That I ain't missing you, missing you
And it couldn't be ripped in two
But tonight, feeling this kinda hurt
At least I know my heart still works
At least I know my heart still works

At least I know my heart still works
At least I know my heart still works
