

Relapse

Chase McDaniel

It should've been my way
I think I'm going my way

I always knew she was bad for me
From the beginning my friends were mad at me
Saying, boy, you better get the hell away
A girl like that'll 'cause you nothing but pain

I'd be rolling out late of my driveway
Sneaking out of mine to get high at her place
Pretending that she's mine when she's calling my name
Getting my fix when she lies to my face

Then I'm going home and I'm full of regret
Hiding from the boys all the time that I spent
With a woman so mean, know I gotta get clean
But I'm addicted to the spell that she got on my body

I think I'm gonna relapse, said I'd never be back
Sick of obsessing over everything that we had
Lock me in the house, never let me leave
Keep me from my car, go and hide away my keys
Yeah, I think I'm gonna relapse
Check me in a rehab, and detox my brain
Get her out my veins, I need more than space
If I run her way, put a ball bat to my knee caps
I think I'm gonna relapse

I know I'm in a strange position
But loving that girl's like a head-on collision
And I'd turn around but I've already committed
Heading her way for another bad decision

Everybody says that I'm living two lives
Lying to my friends where I went just last night
Lying to myself that she'd make a good wife
And whatever she doing she been doing it just right

I think I'm gonna relapse, said I'd never be back
Sick of obsessing over everything that we had
Lock me in the house, never let me leave
Keep me from my car, go and hide away my keys
Yeah, I think I'm gonna relapse
Check me in a rehab, and detox my brain
Get her out my veins, can't help what I crave
If I run her way, put a ball bat to my knee caps
I think I'm gonna relapse
Relapse

I'm just sick and tired of this messing around
Know she ain't the kind to be settling down
Maybe I just gotta get outta this town, yeah
But I can't do it right now

I think I'm gonna relapse, said I'd never be back
Sick of obsessing over everything that we had
Lock me in the house, never let me leave

Keep me from my car, go and hide away my keys
Yeah, I think I'm gonna relapse
Check me in a rehab, and detox my brain
Get her out my veins, I need more than space
Can't help what I crave
If I run her way, put a ball bat to my knee caps
I think I'm gonna relapse
I think I'm gonna relapse
I think I'm gonna relapse
