

Belong

Chase Rice

Splashing water in the mirror on my face
Wish this steam was a past I could wash away
But it is what it is and it ain't what it ain't
Looking back or forwards won't change a thing

Flipping channels full of hate, full of black and white
Wish they'd throw some good in my headlines
Like that kid who sold his Jordans for his mama's treatments
When I hear that kind of love, man, it helps me see it

We ain't going off the deep end, no

We're right where we belong
We're right where we belong
Where we're going, we don't know
But we're going there together
We're right where we belong

They say we're all lost on a permanent roam
An entire generation raised in a phone
But, hey, this thing takes notes and the notes make me able
To remember melodies that put food on my table
You see one second you starve, the next you're a star
Say one thing wrong and it all falls apart
Whatever happened to "we all make mistakes"?
Let's put a little more amazing back in the grace

We're right where we belong
We're right where we belong
Where we're going, we don't know
But we're going there together
We're right where we belong

We all run out of gas, run out of clock
Midnights strike and slippers fall off
But we all got something great inside
Sure, it may take a little time,
That's alright, enjoy the ride

We're right where we belong
We're right where we belong
Where we're going, we don't know
But we're going there together
We're right where we belong
We're right where we belong

Whoa (Where we're going, we don't know)
Whoa (But we're going there together)
Whoa (We're right where we belong)
Whoa (Where we belong)
