You're losing me, girl, but you get L.A
We knew from the start that you couldn't stay
You had dreams of your own but we fell anyway
Now we got one more night
To do what we do best
I'ma need one big-ass buzz
To put this thing to bed

So let's split a fifth of Tennessee and drink it 'til it's dry
Make love to the radio and kiss it all goodbye
It's gonna hurt like hell and I don't wanna feel too much
If we're gonna break up, let's break up drunk

The closer we get to our last sunrise
That whiskey will whisper some good sounding lines
Like it'll all work out I'll see you in the fall
Losing you might kill me less with a little alcohol

So let's split a fifth of Tennessee and drink it 'til it's dry
Make love to the radio and kiss it all goodbye
It's gonna hurt like hell and I don't wanna feel too much
If we're gonna break up, let's break up drunk

I don't wanna think about it, baby, let's drink about it
I don't wanna think about it, break up drunk
I don't wanna think about it, baby, let's drink about it
I don't wanna think about it, break up drunk

I'll be hurting tomorrow either way

So let's split a fifth of Tennessee and drink it 'til it's dry
Make love to the radio and kiss it all goodbye
It's gonna hurt like hell and I don't wanna feel too much
If we're gonna break up, let's break up drunk

I don't wanna think about it, baby, let's drink about it
I don't wanna think about it, break up drunk
I don't wanna think about it, baby, let's drink about it
I don't wanna think about it, break up drunk
