Give you heaven in your thirties baby, I'm not shy
Tell me, is it love or not?
I know I hide you on the side, Jah
I know I make you pray to Jah
I know I leave you high and dry, bye
Know you don't wanna say bye

Love it when I fuck real slow
Love your body, girl, it's better when nobody knows
Know outside is cold
Shit, you got everything I like

You know I'm tryna slide, slide, I need you by my side
Wanted me to slide, slide, slide, slide
Slide, slide, I need you by my side
Wanted me to slide, slide, slide, slide

When you lonely
I got you when you lonely, lil' bitch
Said if I knew, then I would do better, I know better
I'm tryna do better for us
Promises that I showed you
Know I brush it all apart
I hit your phone soon as I park

Love it when I fucked real slow
Love your body, girl, it's better when nobody knows
Know outside is cold
And she got everything I like

You know I'm tryna slide, slide, I need you by my side
Wanted me to slide, slide, slide, slide
Slide, slide, I need you by my side
Wanted me to slide, slide, slide, slide

Gate code on lock, you talked a lot
My phone on silent keep you from wildin'
Out all on me, can't keep PG
A love letter, CC, know you need me too

I don't wanna run
I don't wanna be too lonely
That fucks up my pride
Yeah, these girls, they hit my phone, can't pick up
Spend my time inside
Treat my heart just like free-run
Probably why I lack...
I can't trust, I can't trust nobody
