

Breathing

Chase & Status

I don't get your intentions
But I can try to figure out, yeah
You don't answer my questions
Instead you turn your head around

Suddenly you started crying
You took my hand and held me tight
I know words couldn't describe it
So I looked into your eyes

Oh, the way your tears start to refill your story
Makes me stop breathing
Feels like a spear cut through my heart
And made it stop beating

I just can't believe what I'm reading
She left a note and run away
Couldn't be more clear help was needed
But it didn't work to make her stay

I'll always offer you protection
No longer scared or be afraid
I see it's causing heavy bleeding
Your eyes keep speaking

Oh, the way your tears start to refill your story
Makes me stop breathing
Feels like a spear cut through my heart
And made it stop beating

Trust me, I'll drag you out of the dark, I'll pull it out of yo ur heart
Whatever it may be
So listen please, you need a new start, let me be your guard
Cause each time it hurts me

Oh, the way your tears start to refill your story
Makes me stop breathing
Feels like a spear cut through my heart
And made it stop beating
