

Heaven Knows

Chase & Status

Do you remember, do you recall
The day that I told you I wanted nothing at all?
You came and you chased me, I told you to leave
Why won't you listen, why won't you listen to me?

I couldn't give a fuck about you and your stuff
It's time that you went home
Don't want you anymore, show yourself to the door

Do you remember, do you recall
The day that you told me you thought that we could be more?
You came and you chased me, I told you to leave
Why won't you listen, why won't you listen to me?

I gave you my heart for a second and then
I snatched it straight back, I couldn't pretend
Loving you was worth it

Don't make it easy, a dreamer's meant to cry
You say that you need this, now don't just say goodbye
Heaven knows I tried, heaven knows I tried
Heaven knows, now don't just say goodbye

Heaven knows I tried, heaven knows I tried
Heaven knows, now don't just say goodbye
