Mixed Emotions

Chase & Status

I thought you were the somebody
That I was looking for
I want to show you how to love
And adore, yeah

It feels like forever
Since we made a little space, for you and I
This is now or never
I can't hold on to my pride every night

Oh, baby
You keep on giving me mixed emotions
Oh, you're making fires in my heart
Oh, you keep on giving me mixed emotions
Hey, you're making fires in my heart

I guess I kinda like the flame
So can't walk away

Oh, baby
You keep on giving me mixed emotions
Oh, you're making fires in my heart
Oh, you keep on giving me mixed emotions

It's like I waited all my life
Just to find your light, hey
I used to feel so at ease by your side
Now your eyes don't even meet mine

It feels like forever
Since we made a little space, for you and I
This is now or never
I can't hold on to my pride every night

Oh, baby
You keep on giving me mixed emotions
Oh, you're making fires in my heart
Oh, you keep on giving me mixed emotions
Hey, you're making fires in my heart

I guess I kinda like the flame
So can't walk away

You keep on giving me mixed emotions
So can't walk away
You keep on giving me mixed emotions
Can't walk away

So can't walk away
