

Long For More

Chasing Safety

If I fall back now
Could I possibly climb back out

Let me leave it's my time now
I've had enough of this lonely hell
Hide and seek is a deadly game
When all you find is different types of pain

Right now I long for something more
I need a reason give me the feeling that there's more
Beyond the door.

I'll exit now to find my way
I can't bare this another day
If this is how it ends then I gotta go
This is a feeling you will never know

If I fall back now could I possibly climb back out

Give up, time to clock out
Cause right now I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more
Give up clock out
Because I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more

Find out what this life is for
I need a reason to get the feeling
That it offers something more

Were we compliant I wanna riot
And break from the shackles that I have Woah woah this is how it goes
When you've been dealt a shit hand for so long

If I fall back now could I possibly climb back out now
Give up, time to clock out
Cause right now I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more
Give up clock out
Because I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more

I can't breath
Cause this weight is suffocating me
I can't see
Cause I'm blinded by everything see

So pick me up cause I'm falling down and I've lost all faith in the world around me

I've lost all faith in everything that once created me
That once created me

Give up, time to clock out
Cause right now I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more
Give up clock out
Because I'm dead on the floor
And as I'm staring at the door
Oh god I long for something more

If I fall back now could I possibly climb back out
