

Drone

Chastity Belt

He was just an illusion
Stuck in my own bad air
I've thought I had freedom, but
I was stuck in

I made
Choices without reason
Choices without reason
Invite strangers in
And meet them

He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something
He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something

I never expect much
From anyone
So I'm never dissapointed, and I
Never have to trust

I made
Choices without reason
Choices without reason
Invite strangers in
And meet them

He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something
He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something

He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something
He was just another man, tryn'a teach me something
