

Pissed Pants

Chastity Belt

I broke my bike, I better buy a new one
Or maybe I'll just walk home instead
You can have everything you've always dreamed of
But first you gotta get out of your head

You said so casually
"Everything just works out"
In time we'll all be
Surrounded by what guides us

Haven't had this feeling in a long time
A mindless thrill and I can't help but laugh
Now I'm obsessing over endings
And all the things that are holding me back

You said, so casually
"Everything just works out"
In time we'll all be
Surrounded by what guides us

Yeah, I saw it coming
I saw it coming and now it's gone
Yeah, I saw it coming
I saw it coming and now it's gone
