

Trapped

Chastity Belt

The night is still but my heart is fast
When I get there, I'll be trapped
I don't wanna see what's behind these eyes
I don't wanna see what's behind these eyes tonight

It's all in front of me
Living, breathing, dreaming, dying

Why are we so concerned with endings?
We can be happy for a while
Now when I close my eyes I envy
Anyone who feels alright

It's all in front of me
Living, breathing, dreaming, dying
