

Addicted And Clean

Chayce Beckham

If you're a beer at a bar, you're the kind I'd drink all night
You're the last cigarette I smoked a thousand times
The angel and the devil on my shoulder both call your name
Is it good, is it bad
Is it wrong, is it all the same

No I ain't sober but I'm over you most days
I'm getting closer but you're a habit I can't break
I'm somewhere between locked up and free
The first thing I want, the last thing I need
The man I am, the man I wanna be
But I'm somewhere between
Addicted and clean

There ain't a twelve-step heartache fix for a girl like her
The only thing that makes it better makes it worse
There's a light at the end of the tunnel
But it burns at both ends
Try to see where heaven stops and hell begins

No I ain't sober but I'm over you most days
I'm getting closer but you're a habit I can't break
I'm somewhere between locked up and free
The first thing I want, the last thing I need
The man I am, the man I wanna be
But I'm somewhere between
Addicted and clean

One more hit can't hurt
One more hit can't heal
Well I've been chasing that high
It's about time
I felt something real

I ain't sober but I'm over you most days
I'm getting closer but you're a habit I can't break
I'm somewhere between locked up and free
The first thing I want, the last thing I need
The man I am, the man I wanna be
Yeah the man I am and the man I wanna be I'm somewhere between
Addicted and clean

If you're a beer at a bar, you're the kind I'd drink all night