

Bad For Me

Chayce Beckham

Tonight I want something bad for me
That's gonna keep me up and losing sleep
I've been strong but honestly
Tonight I want something bad for me

It ain't a Marlboro on a barstool
Or 90 proof on ice
It ain't stayin' out too late
It ain't tryin' to start a fight
It's sky-blue eyes that don't say bye
In the mornin' when they leave
Yeah tonight I want something bad for me

Something to wreck this heart of mine
Something I'll regret in the morning light
A midnight taste of what used to be
Tonight I want something bad for me

It ain't a Marlboro on a barstool
Or 90 proof on ice
It ain't stayin' out too late
It ain't tryin' to start a fight
It's sky-blue eyes that don't say bye
In the mornin' when they leave
Yeah tonight I want something bad for me

I want that poison in her kiss
To run right through my veins
I know it's a fix
Cause I know that it ain't

A Marlboro on a barstool
Or 90 proof on ice
It ain't stayin' out too late
It ain't tryin' to start a fight
It's sky-blue eyes that don't say bye
In the mornin' when they leave
Yeah tonight I want something bad for me

Hey girl are you up?
I'm out here in my truck
