

Passing Through

Cheap Trick

Hey... wait
Where are you going?
You cant go... without me knowing... did you love me
Or was your heart just passing through?
I thought that no one out there
Could love me more than you

A smile on your face
But not in your eyes
It's hard to embrace... no need to apologize... I found my Love... in a casual girl like you
Oh... I can see it now
Your heart's just passing through

Yeah the weight of the world
Poor unusual girl
Something's driving you mad each time you try to either reason or rhyme (remember)
Time's on your side
I've always wanted you so... I wanted you to want me too
But I can see it now
Your heart's just passing through
Yeah I can feel it now
Your hearts just passing through
