

Twelve Gates

Cheap Trick

Some days are better than others
Can't stand some of my brothers now
Eyes closed cover my ears
My thoughts lost in my fears

Maybe, maybe a change of heart
Maybe it's just a brand new start
Can't you feel it goin' round?
A new day's comin', comin' down

Some ways are better than others
Those days sometimes I wonder
What's the over under together
Twelve gates, are they locked forever?

Maybe, maybe a change of heart
Maybe it's just a brand new start
Can't you feel it goin' round?
A new day's comin', comin' down

Someone knows where's the keys are
Somewhere buried in their backyard
We could dig, dig them up together
That way we'll all be better

Maybe, maybe a change of heart
Maybe it's just a brand new start
Can't you feel it goin' round?
A new day's comin', comin' down

Maybe, maybe a change of heart
Maybe, maybe a change of heart
