Though we say it's good, say it's good, it's a lie though
Girls in my phone drivin' me wild
Got me thinkin' 'bout switchin' up my whole style

Yeah, everybody's got some demons
And mine came over when you left for the weekend
I'm so sorry, can't believe that I
Traded one heart for a bitch that don't like me

I did the wrong thing to the right girl
Traded in some diamonds for some fake pearls
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
To the right girl
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
In just one night, I destroyed my whole world
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
To the right girl

I see the tears in your eyes, you're not the only one cryin'
Let a part of me die when I woke up from the night
And now, my heart, it just bleeds 'cause without you, I'm just me
And I don't really like me at all
