It's Sunday night, a starry summer sky
I hope that you ask me to stay the night
The sun'll never rise, I think that you want me
I'm trying to find the words to say

Please don't go
I want you, I don't wanna sleep alone
We won't know what could've been if you walk out the door
Please don't go
Please don't go

Let's go inside, I'm starting to get tired
I'm shy and too afraid to say it
To stay the night, the sun will never rise
I'll try, I'll try
I'm trying to find the words to say

Please don't go
I want you, I don't wanna sleep alone
We won't know what could've been if you walk out the door
