Sober

It's been a while since I thought about you
It's been a while, have you thought about me too?
I'm meeting him at that place that we used to
It's been a while since I thought about you
God, he almost looks like you in the dark
Sitting in the same corner at the bar
Yeah, we took so many shots we went too hard
God, he almost looks like you in the dark
He ordered our drink before I could notice
That Jack N Coke brought us into focus
I took a sip, it tasted just like you used to
It's been a while since I thought about you

I wouldn't say it sober
But the truth is coming out
I didn't miss you until now, until now
In my right mind, it's over
But the drinks are talking loud
I didn't miss you until now, until now

Being here without you doesn't feel right
His lips are moving and I'm tryna be too nice
He's looking at me but he doesn't have your eyes
Being here without you doesn't feel right
Your song just came on and now it feels hopeless
Jukebox is playing old Guns 'N Roses
I put a dollar in it just like you used to
It's been a while since I thought about you

I wouldn't say it sober
But the truth is coming out
I didn't miss you until now, until now
In my right mind, it's over
But the drinks are talking loud
I didn't miss you until now, until now
