

Something's Coming

Cheat Codes

Been a soul without direction
And I've been right where I should be
I've seen skies that reached to heaven
And nights that brought me to my knees

I've learned to take my own confessions
I've learned to take care of my dreams
But most of all I've learned to listen
To the silence beckoning

Something's coming, coming, coming
And I'm not scared at all to feel it
Out the dark I can see it
Coming, coming, coming, coming
And I'll hear the call
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

'Cause hearts change like seasons after all
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

So turn my life to dust and ashes
Or in a moment make it clear
'Cause either way I know I needed it to happen
That's why I'm standing right here

'Cause I know that

Something's coming, coming, coming
And I'm not scared at all to feel it
Out the dark I can see it
Coming, coming, coming, coming
And I'll hear the call
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

After all
After all
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

Sometimes nights are colder
Sometimes things are falling
Sun makes the horizon feel new
Sometimes nights are colder
Sometimes things are falling
I feel it all as it comes 'round to you
'Cause I know that

Something's coming, coming, coming
And I'm not scared at all to feel it
Out the dark I can see it
Coming, coming, coming, coming
And I'll hear you call
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

After all
After all
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all

After all
'Cause hearts change like seasons after all
