

Day Is Done

Chef'Special

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
Remember all the bad things I saw
Dreams don't come for nothing

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
My heart asleep and my days don't end
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started

Part of my rock bottom
I can't see nor hear you talking
Can't spot me, that's no problem
So don't solve it keep on walking

My flow is old and rusty
My soul is cold and dusty
My smile is so worn off when I'm happy
I don't trust me

I rap the blues
In this game of fools there are many truths
Watch me bend rules
As I roll down burned out avenue

So turn that, turn that low
Turn out the music and burn it all
So turn that, turn that low
Turn out the music and burn it all

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
Remember all the bad things I saw
Dreams don't come for nothing

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
My heart asleep and my days don't end
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started

Man, I'm a dead man walking
There's no temper rising, falling
Slave in the dark, yeah, night has laws
And nightmares keep on coming

There's a weight and it has me crawling
There's a light at the end of the tunnel
But if I stay right here and embrace that fear
I can hear my future calling

I got love and I can't be loved
I got hate and I can't be hated
I got stuck in a fake ass comfort zone
I can't run and I can't embrace it

I'm done, done sleeping
I'm done, done sleeping
I'm done, done dreaming
I'm numb, no feeling
No love, no meaning
I'm on my knees and
I'm done, done sleeping
I'm done done
I'm done, done
I'm trying but I'm tired of sleeping
I'm tired of sleeping

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
Remember all the bad things I saw
Dreams don't come for nothing

I don't wake up till the day is done
Open my eyes in the darkness
My heart asleep and my days don't end
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
They have never started
