

Bound to be free
It has been clear from the start
I have no fear up in this heart, no boundaries
Bound to be free
But can you watch me from a distance?
Before I lose the touch and listening
And I don't feel I wanna miss what's in your heart
What's in your heart

What's in your dark past, behind your pebbles
Feel yet can't see, can't unravel
You said "follow me" but you walked behind
I had no coat on and I walked no line
You said: "Boy go there, where there's no sunshine
For the darker your journey the brighter your mind
And the brighter what you might just gonna find
Don't load what you can't carry, walk twice"

Free
It has been clear from the start
I have no fear up in this heart, no boundaries
Bound to be free
But can you watch me from a distance?
Before I lose the touch and listening
And I don't feel I wanna miss what's in your heart
What's in your heart

What's in your restless mind at the present time?
Trying to hide low and pretend the high
But you don't have to shine every time I come by
I can take it I, I'm a big guy
I know I haven't turned my head much since I left
Been working on success
Tryna learn from my regrets
Now, I hope I earn all the love I get Sometimes I give all I have
And there's really nothing left
It ain't a curse it's a blessing
I hear you thinking, between the turns and the guessing
All is freedom
All is welcome and none is needed
I don't claim the unforeseen boy, don't get greedy

Free
It has been clear from the start
I have no fear up in this heart, no boundaries
Bound to be free
But can you watch me from a distance?
Before I lose the touch and listening
And I don't feel I wanna miss what's in your heart
What's in your heart

So I don't wanna miss what's in your heart
I don't wanna lose what's in your heart
I just wanna hold what's in your heart
'Cause I'll be back
You can show me once more

We're are free
Bound to be free, bound to be free
