

Oceans

Chef'Special

I found a place where I can be myself
Within the simple little words that you tell
It might be bigger than I'll ever understand
So I smile lay my weary ears to rest

While my heart beats
While my heart beats

I'm finally free
Let the sky fall down on me
Let the oceans drag me deep
Still I'm closer than I've ever been
I think it's a forever thing
I think it's a forever thing

I used to be scared but I tried to never show it
Tried to be light on my feet like a boxer
I've been fighting too long and too alone
So I smile knowing this could only be
The sweetest surrender
The sweetest surrender I need

I'm finally free
Let the sky fall down on me
Let the oceans drag me deep
Still I'm closer than I've ever been
I think it's a forever thing

I'm finally free
Let the sky fall down on me
Let the oceans drag me deep
Still I'm closer than I've ever been

I'm finally free
Let the sky fall down on me
Let the oceans drag me deep
Still I'm closer than I've ever been

I'm finally free
Let the sky fall down on me
Let the oceans drag me deep
Still I'm closer than I've ever been
I think it's a forever thing
