On Shoulders

Chef'Special

In a land of hope
There's a river running low
In a land of hope
They know
They know
They know how this river flows

Cause it flows back into the days in times
Back into the fighting blind
Burning fire, crashing lightnin
First steps on the story line
And the river don't flow for me, no
That river is cold to me
Wash away my traces man
All my tracks are gone

It takes a million years to find out where I'm coming from

I know, I don't know that much
I'm getting dumber by the year
Trying to embrace it all
Even now I'm so much older
Still feels like I'm on your shoulders
On your shoulders

Look around and think about all the times that you carried me
Close my eyes and catch your wind up in our family tree
Be blocking your eyes with my hands and I told you directions that you had t o walk
Exactly the way that I told you to walk
And you did it cause I was your son

I know exactly where I'm coming from

I know, I don't know that much
I'm getting dumber by the year
Trying to embrace it all
Even now I'm so much older
Still feels like I'm on your shoulders
On your shoulders
On your shoulders
On your shoulders

No matter how high, no matter how high, no
No matter where I, no matter where I go
No matter how high, no matter how high, no
No matter where I go I know I'm always on your

I know, I don't know that much
I'm getting dumber by the year
Trying to embrace it all
Even now I'm so much older
Still feels like I'm on your
On your shoulders
On your shoulders
On your shoulders
On your shoulders

On your shoulders
On your shoulders
On your shoulders
Still feels like I'm on your shoulders
