

Like satin
Wrap yourself around me
Take me into your
Open arms love is all
Every fiber has a
Different meaning
And I have
No control no control no control

Like satin
Lay me down when I need it most
I need you most
When you're not here
And I can't help myself
Cause I have
No control no control no control

Oh what if I never unfold
Oh what if I never unfold

I'm so tired of what my mind has demanded
But you don't mind if I come empty handed
Would you mind if I share a few of my
Devious meaningless thoughts
Themes of a previous loss
Maybe it's enough to make a grown man cry
You give me cover
Close one sense open up another
Lately it's enough to make a grown man fly

Oh what if I never unfold
Oh what if I never unfold

Like satin
Wrap yourself around me
Take me into your
Open arms love is all
Every fiber has a
Different meaning
And I have
No control no control no control
